

Nuclear and Emerging Technologies for Space (NETS-2018)
26 February – 1 March 2018, Palace Station Hotel & Casino, Las Vegas, NV

Student Travel Assistance Application

A small amount of funding is available from the Aerospace Nuclear Science & Technology Division budget to help defray some of the travel expenses of registered student attendees.

Students may apply for a portion of this travel assistance fund by submitting this application form and their hotel and transportation receipts to Chris Morrison by email (generalc.integrity@gmail.com). The deadline for submission is 8 March 2018. After the Topical, the travel assistance fund will be divided among the student applicants, with the limitations that any individual payment cannot exceed a student's actual travel costs and the maximum assistance will be $600.
